NAVY DEPARTMENT,
May 29, 1858.

SIR: In reply to the resolution of the Senate of the 25th instant, requesting the Secretary of the Navy to furnish the Senate with certain information concerning the pay of the retired naval officers whose cases were acted upon by the late naval courts of inquiry and the President, and who have been advanced to a higher grade or position as to pay, though not restored to the active list, than that assigned them by the late "retiring board," together with a list of such officers, with the positions assigned them by the said board and those now held by them, I have the honor to transmit herewith a letter, dated the 27th inst., with other papers, from the Fourth Auditor, to whom the department referred the resolution, furnishing the information and list desired.

I am, with great respect, your obedient servant,

ISAAC TOUCEY.

Hon. J. C. BRECKINRIDGE,
President of the Senate.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Fourth Auditor's Office, May 27, 1858.

SIR: I have the honor to inform you, in answer to the resolution of the United States Senate of the 25th instant, referred to this office, that the amount which would be required for the purpose therein mentioned is thirty-nine thousand seven hundred and five dollars and twenty-seven cents, ($39,705 27.) If, however, the resolution is meant to embrace those officers of the navy who were dropped by the "retiring board" and restored to the "reserved list" by the late courts of inquiry, then the additional sum of two thousand seven hundred and three dollars and sixteen cents ($2,703 16) would be necessary, making the aggregate amount of forty-two thousand four hundred and eight dollars and forty-three cents, ($42,408 43.)

I also enclose the list called for by the resolution.

I have the honor to be, sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
A. O. DAYTON.
